1. INTRODUCTION

This manual has been compiled in accordance with the Promotion to Access to Information Act No.2 of 2000 (“the PAIA Act”). Section 51 of the PAIA Act requires that a private body compile a manual providing information to the public regarding the procedures to be followed in requesting information from such body for the purpose of exercising or protecting rights. The aim of this manual is to assist potential requesters, who intend to obtain documents or records from the company in terms of the PAIA and POPI Acts (“the Acts”), by providing them with the processes to be followed in initiating and pursuing such requests. In applying the PAIA Act and this manual for the provision of information, due regard must also be given to the relevant limitations imposed by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013, as amended (“POPI Act”) on the disclosure of personal information.

The PAIA and POPI Acts give effect to everyone’s constitutional right of access to information held by private sector of public bodies, if the record or personal information is required for the exercise of protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests shall be made in accordance with the Acts and the prescribed procedures at the rates provided.
